Museo del Palio di Asti

Category: Palaces and historic houses business description:

The Museum, housed in the rooms of the 15th century Palazzo Mazzola, home to the Historical Archive, illustrates the most significant milestones in the history of the Palio and the city. In addition to documents never displayed before to the public, you can admire vintage posters and playbills, ancient drapes of the Palio and use multimedia stations with in-depth analysis and very enchanting images.
