Parisio 1933

Category: Restaurants and taverns business description: Parisio 1933 has returned to its roots at Via Cesare Battisti 7, in the historic center of Acqui Terme, boasting renovated spaces and a modern kitchen with state-of-the-art equipment. Traditional local cuisine blends with chef Nicolò Conigliaro's modern touch, creating a riot of unmissable flavors.

Guests are welcomed and served by friendly, helpful, and specialized staff, passionate about providing impeccable service. The aromas of a long culinary tradition permeate the air, where the protagonist is chef Nicolò Conigliaro, the third-born of the Parisio family. His dishes reflect the experience and secrets passed down from his grandfather and uncle.

Andrea oversees the cellar, offering a wine list featuring select labels.

Seeing is believing! Enjoy!
